

accustomed to disport himself here, modestly in an iron kettle with a wooden cover or one might well assume that the Government hole in the centre of which an advertiser

While on the floor I wish to add a word in answer to a suggestion of the gentleman. I deny that I or any man belonging to the element with which I have been identified in the past can be proven to have been in the room on Friday night.

by the record ever to have uttered a word on this floor that looked toward the opening of issues that should have been buried in the war that gave them birth. If one word of sectional character has ever come from this side of the House it has been when manhood and patriotism exalted, and mourning for the victims of the war was the only theme.

The Reporter says Charles Abbott was sentenced at the last term of court one year in the Auburn workhouse, jail at Norridgewood Tuesday morning. He was married, almost 40 years of age.

buried, and drag them out to bottom and brought upon the coast. They have been brought out here again to-day.

Have they been broached from this side of the chamber? It was revealed to the gentleman from Massachusetts and that gentleman from Maine who had just taken the

The reform of March 30th afforded feet of snow at Eastport. About one at Mechiis, and very little if any at Chisfield.

York
The office of the Missouri River & Sanford, was entered by thieves on night of the 4th inst. They were guilty of the great order, as their efforts upon the safe indicated as much.

The section men and those employed at the rail shop of the Eastern railroad, Kenosha depot, have been cut down $1.20 per day. Traffic master of the Eastern road, has resigned that position after to have been hanged after the terms of surrender, and capitulation had been agreed upon? Do you mean to say that he well-earned reputation for prowess, gallantry, courage, manhood, which the soldiers of the Union Army had illustrated by overwhelming and conquering my people, was to be hanging it for twenty-two years. He has in that road's employ for thirty-two years.

SUNSET IN THE HARTZ MOUNTAINS
Standing on the cliff, eight hundred feet above the valley, we looked down into the

Mr. Butler.—Will the gentleman yield to me?

Mr. Blackburn.—Certainly.

Mr. Butler.—Have I uttered any such sentiment?

Mr. Blackburn.—I submit to every one did man upon this floor, whether he sits on that side or on this, as to whether I have not quoted him correctly.

Mr. Butler. Have I said or hinted that after they laid down the rans they ought to have been hanged? The time was before.

Mr. Blackburn. The statement he made was this—

Mr. Butler. The way was to hang them

Mr. Blackburn: How were men to be hanged in the confederate service while they were standing in line of battle with bristling bayonets upon their country's battlefields, bidding defiance to your armies? When a member of this House asserts that

Elsewhere in the world there are heights, softer landscapes, grander valleys; but in variety of tint and depth of color, none of them can surpass a scene on the Roosevelt. — Harper's Magazine

CHURCH DIRECTORY.
Will notices for this department now be sent for Dr. F. M. on Friday to secure attention.
Among services commencing at 10 o'clock, noon services at 12 o'clock, evening services at 7 o'clock.
FIRST PARIISH CONGREGATIONAL—Bread-corn, Suite St. Pulpi supplied by Pres.
and

CENTRAL CONGRESSIONAL—Ereola St.,
state, Rev. C. W. Fitch, Pastor; "Primes" at 10:30 A. M. and 7 P. M.

observed the conditions of their parole, no hearing could be done and no punishment be inflicted—it is time it should be said that we and each of us then and now, are not only entitled to every right of personal liberty and property under the Constitution of this country, but because the object of protection is the hands of the dominant party itself. We had your solemn promise; we had your word definitely given; we had laid down our arms; we had ceased to war upon the Government on the condition stated and a decision precedent that could not be violated.

except to punish, to blacken, to disgrace, to render infamous the men who dared to violate it.

I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, it was found necessary by a member of this House to rekindle us while boasting of that which is close to term clemency, and which impartial

—I am sorry, in illustrating this marriage ceremony to which he claims such credit for his party, it was found necessary for him to parade before us boastfully the execution of an unarmed and helpless prisoner—the only man I believe upon the battlefield who said that the victors of the war

STATE NEWS.

Cambridge.

ALICE, SEATED FIRST TO ALL.

WILLIAM HANCOCK CHAPEL.—Daniel Greene, of Seminary, Stated at 10:30. Preaching at 11. Sabbath School at 11:45. Prayer meeting at 7:30 and Bible conference at 11. Rev. Wm. Foxwell preached to mazzoni yesterday.

HILLMAN SCHOOL, 11 A.M.—Sabbath School at 9 A.M.

St. F. M.

FRANK ST. SCHOOL HOUSE.—Preaching at 11.

Mr. and Mrs. Merrill keepers of the apartment house, Portland, were agreeably surprised Monday evening by a call from a large party of friends. A nice collation was partaken of, after which pleasant remarks were made by Rev. Mr. Clark of Pine street church, Cape Heights, Messrs.

Franklin.
Counterfeit (read) nickle five cent pieces have made their appearance in Farmington Falls. Several were passed and others offered on Saturday last, by some youngsters, who gave no very satisfactory account of their source.

points how they happened to have them, in their possession. It is thought that the sports cars came from Old Orchard Beach. There is considerable talk of having an officer look the matter up. "The whole thing is badly executed."

The Lewiston Journal says it is but a few days since the ill fated village of Soth China had more fire-consuming the dwelling of Mr. Saborne, the late mail contractor. Since then on the return of Henry Doe and wife, who had been spending a fortnight in a neighborhood, they discovered that the village had been destroyed.

covered traces of a "fire-bug." A keg filled with combustibles and saturated with kerosene had been placed in a chamber and was ablaze. Mr. Doe with much energy succeeded in saving the premises. A few moments later and Mr. Doe would have been homeless and ruined.

The Gardiner Journal says that diphtheria has been prevailing to quite an extent in that vicinity, during the last two weeks. In one family they were nearly all sick, and two of them died with it. On Spring street, three persons were attacked, and died, respectively. Several others and one died Saturday. Several other cases are reported in other parts of the city. At this season of the year, when so many changes of the weather occur, no one can be too careful of their health, and particularly when the terrible disease prevails.

Barnesboro.
 H. J. Gammaman, at 1033 A. M., Sunday, Sept. 1, P. M.; evening services: P. M.
 Methodist Episcopal Service at 2 and 4 P. M.
 Universalist, Sabbath School at 104 A. M.
 Freeinging at 2 1/2 P. M.
 St. Joseph's C. M. W. Rev. John De
 Pastor Services at 104 A. M.
 WINTERPORT.

Rev. C. Purtington closes a pleasant and successful three years' pastorate with the Universalist parish in Fairfield on Sunday afternoon next with a farewell sermon. Mr. P. has endeared himself to the people of that village by his conscientious christian course while there and his departure

Mr. P. has endured himself to the people of that village by his conscientious Christian course while there and his departure will be deplored by a large number of warm friends.

The distillery in New Portland has been broken up. It consisted of a barrel stove, STURGEON'S OFFICE. A. M. and P. M.

 ST. THOMAS CHURCH. Rev. Robert W. Foster, Pastor. Morning Service 11-30 A. M. Evening Service 8 P. M.
 METHODIST CHURCH. Rev. Walter Park, Pastor. Morning 11:30 A. M. Evening 8 P. M.

[illegible]

Mr. F. was endured himself to the people of that village by his conscientious Christian course while there and his departure will be deplored by a large number of warm friends.

The distillery in New Portland has been broken up. It consisted of a barrel stove,

[illegible]

Mr. F. was endured himself to the people of that village by his conscientious Christian course while there and his departure will be deplored by a large number of warm friends.

The distillery in New Portland has been broken up. It consisted of a barrel stove,

